JUDGMENT ENTRY - AMENDED

This matter comes to the attention of the Court upon Plaintiff's Motion for Entry of Default and Judgment; Plaintiff appears through counsel and Defendant appears not nor anyone for him; the Court, having reviewed the Court file and being otherwise fully advised in the premises, FINDS:

1. An original notice for the commencement of this action was served on the Defendant as provided by law and the court, therefore, has jurisdiction of the parties and of the subject matter.
2. A notice of intent to seek default was thereafter timely served as required by RCP 1.972(2)(a).
3. One of the attorneys representing Plaintiff has certified in writing that he has examined the EDMS docket for this cause and that said docket show no appearance, motion or answer has been filed by Defendant nor any attorney representing said party.
4. Defendant failed to timely serve and/or file a motion or answer as required under the rules of civil procedure and is therefore deemed in default.
5. The material allegations contained in the Plaintiff's Petition at Law are true; Plaintiff is entitled to the relief sought therein; and Defendant is justly indebted to Plaintiff as prayed in Plaintiff's Petition at Law, therefore:

IT IS HEREBY ORDERED, ADJUDGED AND DECREED judgment is hereby entered in favor of Barnum Quality Hardwood Floors, Inc. and against Defendant Scott Griffen individually and doing business as Old Main Brew Pub in the amount of $7,840.67 plus interest at the rate of 18% per annum from and after 21 February 2018 as well as for the costs of this action, including reasonable attorney fees of $1,713.38.
